KEYNOTE SPEAKER

David Payne founded and directs Catholic Evangelisation Services, which began life as the Catholic Alpha Office and has rapidly evolved to become an evangelistic teaching 'engine-room'.

David Payne

Back in 1996 in response to the Pope's call for a New Evangelisation in the Church and inspired by the Alpha Course David Payne and his team were plunged into the world of film-making producing a series of inspiring films using gifted speakers like Fr Raniero Cantalamessa, Dr Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Archbishop Mark Coleridge, David Wells and Michelle Moran.

More life-giving resources were to follow including 'Knowing God Better' and 'Catholics Making a Difference'.

Then in 2001 David met Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor who suggested these resources should be brought together to form a process for parishes. At this point they changed their name to Catholic Evangelisation Services and launched in 2002 the CaFE (Catholic Faith Exploration) process.

Over the years the team has developed their film-making skills and horizons. They have moved into catechetical resources with 'Baptism' and the 'First Holy Communion and Reconciliation' course for parents, series on the Mass ('This is My Body - Experiencing the Power of the Mass') and one of their most challenging productions to make, the Youth CaFE series.

The CaFE resources have made an impact around the world with a growing demand in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Singapore, Canada, USA and in English speaking parishes around the globe.

David lives in the St. Albans area of Southern Hertfordshire and is married to Gio. They have three children, Carlotta, Giorgio and Lily.
