"Preaching God's Word"

Fr Raniero Cantalamessa is a Franciscan Capuchin, Catholic Priest. Born in Ascoli Piceno, Italy, 22 July 1934, ordained priest in 1958. Divinity Doctor and Doctor in classical literature. Former Ordinary Professor of History of Ancient Christianity and Director of the Department of religious sciences at the Catholic University of Milan. Member of the International Theological Commission (1975-1981).

In 1979 he resigned his teaching position to become a full time preacher of the Gospel. In 1980 he was appointed by Pope John Paul II as 'Preacher to the Papal Household' in which capacity he still serves. He is frequently invited to speak at international and ecumenical conferences and rallies. He has been a member of the Catholic delegation for the Dialogue with the Pentecostal Churches for the last ten years. He runs a weekly programme on the first channel of the Italian state television (RAI).
